Watts, are shown with the Honorable Bill Clayton, speaker of the House of Representatives, after the Friday evening banquet of the Hamlin Board of Community Development. The windmill made of nails and wire was a gift to the speaker from the BCD. Watts made the presentation.

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Two "Workers" were honored here Friday night by the Hamlin Board of Community Development when they selected Marge Fowler and Ellis West as Citizens of the Year. We have had the pleasure of working with both of them over the years and know that if you want something done you just talk them into doing it.

Bill Clayton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, in speaking at the banquet pointed up a fact that most of us fail to remember. Even those of us who take the time to go vote (and there aren't nearly enough of us) seldom ever take the time to express ourselves to our elected representatives.

This is true at all levels of our government. How many ever talk to a school board member or a city councilman much less write to their representative or congressman. Like Clayton said, how can they know how you feel about the different issues.

You elect them and they want to represent you but we are sure that it is difficult at times.

In looking back we find that we probably are as guilty of this neglect as anyone else. We do come in contact with our local officials more than most since we attend the school board and council meetings, but as far as writing those out of town we must plead guilty.

These officials represent a lot of people with differing view points on nearly every issue and it is those who take the time to be heard that stand the better chance of getting their way. Most elected officials try to vote the way they feel their constituents want, but at least this is a guessing game when they never hear from them.

Your state representative and senator will be facing some very tough issues during the next four months that the Legislature is in session and what stands they take may, in some degree at least, be determined by those who take the time to write or talk to them.

How do you feel about such major issues as school financing, highway funding, increasing crime, insurance costs, and energy? These are just some of the issues coming up during this session of the Legislature and we feel sure that your representatives would at least like to hear from some of their people back home. Don't know where to write? Try:

Hamlin to Host Munday, Travel To Knox City

Hamlin varsity basketball teams continue undefeated in the second half of play following their wins over Aspermont and Haskell this past week. The teams will host Munday here Friday and then travel to Knox City Tuesday. Only the two varsity games will be played here Friday with the boys' JV's playing at Knox City Tuesday.

It was another easy win for the Pipers here Tuesday night as they defeated the Haskell Indians, 73-37, with Delbert Thompson leading the scoring with 24 points. Joining him were Charles Brown with 4, Reynolds 10, Ronald Brown 15, Ervine 11, Gonzales 2, Lakey 5, Wheat 2.

The Hamlin girls struggled with Haskell for the first half, leading by only one point at the midway mark, before putting the game out of the way in the third period. Hamlin won 59-37 with Elizabeth Hooper scoring 27 points, Starlet Covington 25, Stacy Bell 5, and Tracy Gregory 2.

Haskell won the boys JV game 54-47, and Hamlin won the girls JV game 36-27.

Both the boys and girls varsity teams won their second games of the second round of District 7-A play Friday night by defeating Aspermont. The Pipers won 72-38 and the girls won 62-42. Aspermont won the girls' junior varsity game, 49-46.

Ronald Brown hit a hot streak for the Pipers as he scored 30 points to lead the scoring. The first and third periods were played on about an even basis with the Hornets but it was the second and fourth periods that really put the game away for the Pipers. Hamlin outscored the Hornets 14-12 in the first period and 15-14 in the third, but then jumped out in the second period 15-0 and 28-12 in the final stanza.

Joining Brown in the scoring for the Pipers were Charles Brown 12, Thompson 8, Reynolds 2, Ervine 2, Gonzales 2, Lakey 4, Willis 4, Jones 8.

Elizabeth Hooper hit 26 points to lead the girls in scoring with Starlet Covington picking up 23 points and Stacy Bell 13.

DURING BCD BANQUET FRIDAY—

Mrs. Fowler, Ellis West Named Citizens of Year

Mrs. Marge Fowler and Ellis West were honored as Citizens of the Year here Friday night at the Hamlin Board of Community Development Annual Banquet. The banquet, attended by over 200, was held in the high school cafeteria.

Speaker of the House Bill Clayton was the banquet speaker and urged those attending to take a more active part in their government. Clayton outlined some of the major problems facing the current session of the Legislature and asked the public to let their Legislators know how they feel about these issues.

"How can he know," he asked, "if you do not communicate with your elected officials?"

The two Citizens of the Year were introduced by one of last year's honorees, Milburn Wink, who singled out their many accomplishments for the community. Mrs. Fowler was singled out for her work this past year as chairman of Hamlin's Bicentennial Commission. West was cited for his work with the Lions Club and the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department.

John S. Watts, local attorney and retiring BCD president, gave a report on the past year's activities of the community and the BCD and introduced the retiring and incoming officers and directors.

He opened his remarks by pointing out how fortunate all were to be living in Hamlin this past year. In his report he covered some of the major building projects currently in progress in the city including the new school, the sewer treatment plant, the apartment complex and others.

He was presented a plaque for his service to the organization by the incoming president, Gary McMillan, assistant manager of Heidenheimer's.

Clayton was introduced by a long-time friend, Jack Willingham, local attorney. The Speaker said that the state was fortunate to be going into the next biennial with a nearly $3 billion surplus. "No state in the union has ever met with this kind of surplus," he noted.

But he also noted that this surplus would be the biggest —Continued on page 7

COMMUNITY LEADERS—Recognized for their outstanding contributions to the Hamlin community are Ellis West, left, and Marge Fowler, Man and Woman of the Year, presented at the annual banquet of the Hamlin Board of Community Development Friday evening.

CITIZENS OF THE YEAR—

If They See A Job To Be Done, They Do It

When Marge Fowler was named Woman of the Year and Ellis West was named Man of the Year at the annual banquet of the Hamlin Board of Community Development Friday evening, two hard working citizens were recognized for their many contributions to the community. Both go about doing various projects for the betterment of the community without fanfare. If they see a job to be done, they do it.

Mrs. Fowler served as chairman of the Hamlin Bicentennial Commission last year, has just completed her third year as a director of the BCD, is an active member of the Jones County board of the American Cancer Society and is in charge of public education, and is a teacher of five-year-olds at First Baptist Church, a position she has held for several years.

A past president of the Hamlin Ex-students Association, she has also served as reporter and has served as a secretary for several years. She was also named the Ex-student Homecoming Queen.

The former Marjorie Riddle and a native of Jones County, she attended school at Wise Chapel before graduating from Hamlin High School in 1939. She also attended North Texas State University in Denton for three years.

She married Robert Fowler in 1945, following his discharge from the service after serving during World War II. He was a prisoner of war in Germany. They have lived in Hamlin all of their married life with the exception of four years while Fowler was employed with an oil company.

Her husband joined the Moore Company here in 1951 and is presently manager of Moore Elevator. He is also mayor of the City of Hamlin.

They have two sons, Bryce, who has recently moved to Arlington, and Mark, a freshman at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene.

Mrs. Fowler joined her sister-in-law, Jo Riddle in forming Mar-Jo's Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio in December, 1971. The studio has expanded since its inception and now includes ladies' ready to wear, gifts, and a beauty salon.

West, when being presented by Milburn Wink, 1976 Man of the Year, was cited for his work behind the scenes, especially in the Lions Club, Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department and Boy Scouts. He is well known for his cooking and has been the chief cook for many activities for the Fire Department, Pied Piper Booster Club and this past year the fish fry for the Ex-student Association.

West is presently serving his third term as president of the Hamlin Foundation and under his guidance the Hamlin Swimming Pool has gone from a facility supported by donations to "paying its own way." With his leadership the pool was fiberglassed last year. Many repair and maintenance jobs have been done by West at no cost to the Foundation. His wife Cleo has served quite capably as manager of the pool during the past years. He has also done many necessary repairs at Hamlin Day Care Center "on his own."

West is a native of Blair, Okla. He married Cleo Berry in Hobart, Okla., and they moved to Hamlin in September, 1960, from Clinton, Okla., where they had lived since 1954.

After serving as an oil mill superintendent for 23 years, he became general superintendent for the City of Hamlin in May, 1969. His wife is employed by the Hamlin High School cafeteria.

West is a Master Mason and member of First Christian Church in Clinton, Okla.

The Wests have two daughters, Violet Pederson of Abilene, and Vickie West of Hamlin; two grandchildren, Marie and Paul Edward Pederson.

It's a way of thinking.
It's a way of saying we get involved with people and their dreams.
It's a way of turning our financial services into no-nonsense problem solvers. It may be a loan for almost any reason, a top interest-paying savings account or a money-managing checking account. It may be just some darn good advice about money.
It's our way of helping people make their dreams come true.

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(January 28, 1927)

A clever bit of burglary was done Sunday night when between the hours of 7:30 and 10:00, some sneak thief climbed on a coal box and entered an upper rear window in the building occupied by the Inzer Pharmacy. This entrance put the prowler on the inside of the office used by Drs. Pardue and Parkhill, but it was evident the marauder was not seeking medical aid for he left the office as he found it, except for the door, leading to the stairway, which he gently lifted from its hinges, he then passed down to the main floor which is occupied by the Inzer Pharmacy and helped himself to the men's watches, two ladies' wrist watches, seven diamond rings and $5.80 from the cash drawer. Mr. Inzer has not made a complete invoice of his loss, but he estimates it would be something near four hundred dollars.

Materials have been purchased and work will begin immediately upon the conversion of 55 Orient coal burning locomotives into oil burners. The conversion will be made in the general shops of the Company at Wichita and the schedule calls for completion of the work by April 30. "Financing this program of power improvement was made possible only by the very great economy in operation that will be effected," E. H. Shauler, General Manager, announced Saturday.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, Mrs. Ted Bledsoe proved a most charming hostess, when she entertained the members of the Blue Bird Bridge Club and a few invited guests.

The rooms were made attractive with ferns and other potted plants artistically arranged.

At the close of five games of bridge a dainty salad course was served on hand-painted trays to Misses. Oliver Jones, S. B. Gray, O. L. Taulman, G. H. Tumlin, Frank Waggoner, H. S. Scales, J. T. Bynum, J. T. Taylor, Harry Pitzer of San Antonio, Donovan and Reynard Waggoner.

Show secretaries will be B. V. Newberry, Harrell Blackburn and Him Herridge.

Mrs. Grady Cook has been appointed acting postmaster at McCauley, succeeding R. B. Hennington. She was named to the position January 11 by W. W. McNarron of Rotan, Republican party chairman of Fisher County.

Hennington transferred to Hamlin, where he has taken a city mail carrier job, replacing Roy Mauldin, who moved several months ago to Alaska.

Principles instilled into growing young men of our schools today will help them to succeed in the world that stands before them, declared D. E. (Dutch) Meyer, athletic director at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, when he spoke at the annual all-district grid banquet staged Saturday night at the new Hamlin High School gymnasium.

Honored guests were members of the Hamlin High School football team, the District 4-AA all-district teams and members of the Class AA Stamford Bulldogs grid squad that won the state AA championship last year.

Mac Fullerton, Hamlin Schools band director, was master of ceremonies.

Coach Truman Nix of Hamlin introduced the coaches of District 4-AA teams. President of the Booster Club, Bobby Crowley, presented a scroll of Superintendent C. F. Cook of Hamlin as "All-4-AA Superintendent."

Meyer was presented by Sammy Baugh, football coach at Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene, who a number of years ago played at TCU when Meyer was football coach.

Numbers are funny. Here's a mathematical weirdo you may find amusing. Write down 15,873. Multiply it by any number from 1 through 9. Then multiply that answer by 7. Bingo! You get a whole string of numbers just like the one you picked from 1 through 9.

(Corrections should be given

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights

AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN — Fast-starting

Texas legislators now have three budget proposals before them, suggesting different approaches to spending state revenues.

Legislative Budget Board's $15.3 billion biennial appropriations bill was introduced in the Senate last week, and first hearings on small agency requests began immediately.

House Speaker Bill Clayton, who prefers a somewhat tighter-fisted approach, engineered introduction of a House bill which would reduce the LBB recommendation about $125 million.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, meanwhile, submitted his Executive Budget, which would total $16.1 billion from all funds — an increase of $2.2 billion over current levels.

Briscoe calculated his bill, though substantially above the LBB's, would leave a balance of $400 million.

Major differences between the Briscoe and LBB approaches lie in the governor's $845 million school finance plan and his $825 million in recommended new funding for highway building and maintenance.

Clayton, a hard-liner on spending, in effect, told House leaders to take no more than three months to turn out an appropriations bill.

The speaker further told them to use a "hammer" if necessary to make sure spending stays below the $15 billion mark for the next biennium.

Clayton set April 11 as the deadline for presentation of a budget bill to the House.

Allowable Set

The statewide oil allowable for February will be held to 98 per cent of potential production.

Railroad Commission Chairman Mack Wallace noted the U.S. last year paid $35 billion for imported foreign oil — equal to $400 for each of 88 million American workers.

Crude imports in 1976 were more than 5.8 million barrels daily (based on the four-week average of January 7). That is an increase of more than 1.1 million over 1975.

Commissioner Jim Langdon said Texas had 49 fields with an allowable of 10,000 barrels a day or more in 1971, with 88 per cent of them producing their allowables. Last year, he said, the number of fields capable of that much production dropped to 28.

Wallace blamed need for imports on improper management of natural resources in Washington.

Three Contending

If Agriculture Commissioner John C. White goes to Washington as U.S. Under-Secretary of Agriculture, at least three will seek appointment of his job.

Briscoe would fill such a vacancy in statewide office until the 1978 general election.

Among those who acknowledge they would like to

Local Students

In Who's Who

Seven high school students from Hamlin will be included in the 1977 edition of Who's Who in Music, according to Tim Jones, band director and head of the school's nominating committee.

The editors of the annual directory have included the names of the students based on their music ability, academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

Names were Cheryl Baker, Kayla Mehaffey, Paul Reynolds, Lisa Howard, DeDe Young, Linda Marcom and Jan Ford.

Dr. and Mrs. Ken Jarosz of Wichita Falls are parents of a baby girl, Jennifer Jean, 10 lbs., born Jan. 16. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jenkins of Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jarosz of Waco. Great grandmothers are Mrs. O. L. Jenkins of Hamlin and Mrs. H. H. Shade of Aspermont.

Cancer Society

Sets Goal for Jones County

The Jones County Unit of the American Cancer Society set a goal of $7,500 for Jones County for its 1977 Drive for American Cancer Society at a meeting at the Cliff House in Stamford Monday evening according to Don Howard, president.

Martha Rollins of Stamford was elected to the board.

Attending the meeting from Hamlin were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hunter Jr. Others attending were from Anson and Stamford.

The next meeting will be held at the Phillips 66 Restaurant in Anson, Mar. 7 at 7 p.m.

DAYTIME TV SCOOP by Patricia Kearney, Editor Daytime TV Magazine

There's a big new romance in the life of JENNIFER LEAK (Olive Gordon in Another World). She's in love with an Italian architect, James D'Auria, whom she met last September. They're very happy, and it was love at first sight.

ADAM KENNEDY, remembered as Brock Hayden on The Doctors, has another novel coming out: "Love Song," (Viking, $7.95), and it's about a young girl's love for an A.W.O.L. Army corporal.

Adam's newest movie, adapted from his own novel, is "The Domino Principle," starring RICHARD WIDMARK, who used to work in radio serials in the 30's.

KATHY GLASS (Jenny Siegel in One Life to Live) tells us she and her husband, Ted Harris, have bought a townhouse in New York's Greenwich Village section. They occupy one apartment and rent the others.

The PATRICIA BRUDER Fan Club is now headed by Mrs. Elizabeth Payne, 35 Selborne Chase, Fairport, N.Y. 14450. (Pat plays Ellen Stewart on As the World Turns.) MART HULSWIT (Dr. Ed Bauer, Guiding Light) is building a house on 120 acres he bought in New Hampshire. A total retreat—the house will have no electricity, no inside

Philosopher Says Living Up to Campaign Promises Is Not As Hard As Some Think

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One discusses a couple of subjects this week in his usual way.

Dear editor: Stating the problem, I've noticed, is a lot harder than finding the answer.

According to government figures, about half the automobile accidents in this country involve people who've had too much to drink. It's one of the most serious problems of the automobile age and responsible people are wracking their brains to find an answer. One official announced the other day a new device under consideration may be the answer.

We reported scientists are working on a sniffer, an apparatus attached to the ignition of a car. You blow into it and if you have alcohol on your breath, your car won't start.

I'm afraid the idea would result mostly in the increase in the sale of bicycle pumps. All a drunk would have to do is turn his head, pump air into the apparatus, the car would register him sober, and he could start the engine and weave toward his next accident.

Let's change the subject. I was watching the inauguration of President Carter on television last week and got to wondering about the wooden stand erected for the occasion. I don't know what it cost but it was a lot of money for something used just a few hours. And remember it has to be re-built every four years. Next time, why not hold the thing in Washington's football stadium? The big shots could sit on the 50-yard line, Congressmen on the 30, and the common folk in the end zones.

Speaking of the new president, some columnists are already writing articles wondering if he can live up to all his promises. They don't understand politics. It won't be such a hard job.

You see, political promises are like prices in a clothing store. After January 1 they're all reduced by 20 to 30 per cent.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

NEWS FOR YOUTH

Good Jobs Available Now

There's good news for high school seniors who would like a good job while they're in school and one after they graduate.

Now, through a special program just for young men and women attending high school, the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve will accept recruits who don't have to report for basic training for nearly eight months.

YOUNG PEOPLE can get good part-time and full-time jobs.

In the meantime, students can continue to attend high school, secure in knowing they have a good job waiting for them after graduation. In addition, they earn good money for attending one meeting a month in a Marine Corps Reserve unit, practicing the Marine Corps drill and learning what it means to be a Marine.

Then, within 60 days after graduation the new recruit can become a Marine Reservist, a worthwhile and exciting job for a young person.

For details about the program, and about opportunities in the Marine Corps, the toll-free number is (800) 423-2600. The toll-free number in California is (800) 252-0241.

Among the many benefits of being a Marine are such things as 30-day paid vacations, tax breaks, housing loans and benefits, health and medical care, commissary and exchange benefits, travel and many special education programs that can help you learn a skill you can use to further your career in the military and as a civilian, or that let you go on to college, officers training school, even the Naval Academy.

It seems to be a good way for a young person to earn good money now and learn some good things in the future.

TEMPTING AND THRIFTY—Adrian Steak and Rice.

One way homemakers can cope with a lean budget is to make liberal use of rice in main dishes.

Rice costs only three cents for a half-cup serving, and it is so versatile it combines with almost anything to make soups, salads, main dishes or desserts.

Economical though it is, American rice is also nutritious. It contains carbohydrates, protein, vitamins and minerals. It's easy to prepare, cooking in minutes.

Here are some suggestions for delicious dishes that are easy on both the cook and pocketbook:

- Bake a rice and chicken casserole made flavorful with onion, herbs and chopped pimiento.
- Use a quick-cooking broiler-fryer chicken to make a well-flavored stew, putting in an extra chicken bouillon cube or granulated base to add flavor. Add your favorite vegetables—carrots, peas, parsnips, onions. Serve stew with rice, sprinkling with shredded cheese, if desired.
- Cook a rich savory bean soup; season with sausage or salt pork. Serve with rice.
- Cut beef liver into pencil strips, season with salt and pepper, quickly brown in butter. Then sprinkle with lemon juice and chopped parsley—and serve with rice.
- Make delicious easy-to-fix Adrian Steak and Rice to please a family of steak lovers without depleting the meat allowance.

ADRIAN STEAK AND RICE

- 1/2 cup beef broth
- 2 medium onions, sliced
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 teaspoon each basil and thyme
- 3 cups hot cooked rice

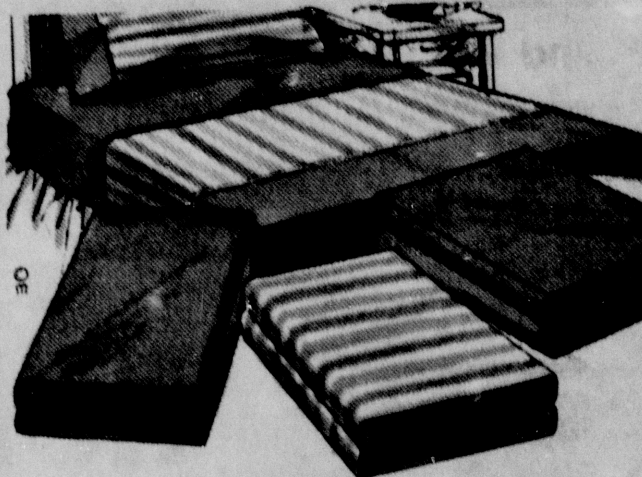

Season steak with garlic, salt, and pepper. Brown meat in oil. Add remaining ingredients, except rice. Bring to a boil, cover, reduce the heat, and simmer 25 minutes. Remove bay leaf. Serve over beds of fluffy rice. Makes 6 servings.

Crop Reports Help Make Decisions

Farming advice sometimes brings subtle benefits. A producer can not always pin a dollar value on each separate piece of agricultural advice. But a producer can expect to make the best decision for higher profits when he considers all production and marketing factors. One source is crop reports from

USDA's Statistical Reporting Service (SRS), as Jones County ASC Committee Chairman Tony Jones points out. How are crop reports valuable to the individual producer? The successful producer looks at how the crop reports relate to all other factors that may affect crop prices. He checks additional information including export demand, production prospects in other parts of the world, government programs, etc., published by USDA and other organizations, Jones says. The January Prospective Plantings crop estimates the number of acres producers plan to see to major crops in each significant producing state. "Let's look at how an individual farmer can use the January information," Jones said. By comparing the prospective plantings with acres actually planted and harvested in previous years, a farmer would get an indication of prospective production and would have time to alter his cropping plans by shifting some or all of his land, for example, from corn to soybeans or other spring grains. There is also a Spring Prospective Plantings report. Issued in mid-April, this report updates the January report and reflects farmer reactions to the January planting intentions and other factors such as economic conditions and the weather. Planting may be well underway in the southern producing states, but growers in the Corn Belt and other Northern states may still have time to switch to alternative crops. A crop report released June 30, estimates planted acreages of the upcoming crops and this helps determine which way crop prices may head after harvest. If the grower has grain on hand from a previous harvest, projections from the June report may influence his decision on whether to sell or

THE HAMLIN HERALD. HAMLIN, TEXAS, 79520 hold his grain. Another type of crop report estimates grain stocks. Issued in January, April, June and October, these indicate the volume of grains stored on farms and off farms in each state. These show the farmer the current national supply and provide additional data that may influence his marketing decisions. A producer has local ways of staying on top of conditions in his area, but USDA's crop reports enable greater flexibility and freedom through knowing the situation elsewhere in his region and in the rest of the country. The careful producer considers domestic and export demand and supply prospects before adjusting his growing and marketing strategies for the highest possible returns. Crop reports are free upon request to the Statistical Reporting Service, Room 0005, USDA, Washington, D. C. 20250. Classified deadline is 8:30 a.m. Wednesday.
